Gospel, Church & Culture
(TH 437/TH 617)Course Description

How Christians carry out the practice of the church and how the Gospel is heard or seen, is deeply influenced by practices, and presuppositions conditioned by their culture. This course will use worldviews as a tool for understanding cultures, and examine the dominant ideologies found in contemporary Asian society. Students will learn how to appreciate cultural conditioning of belief and behaviour, and relate this specifically to what this means for the church and its mission in a multi-ethnic, pluralistic culture.
